30

28

General Description

The surveyed portion of this Tp. embraces all the agricultural land the balance being too mountainous but affording very fine pasture.

The land rises in benches to the north. the soil in the S W quarter is good being very fertile along Coil creek which is a living stream. Flat Cañon Creek runs nearly all Summer being supplied by Springs in the Mts.

The Mts in the East half of this Tp are well timbered with pine cedar & mahogany

F. T. Moran
U.S. Dep. Sur.