General Description

The portion of this township surveyed by me consists of rough broken mountains covered with a fair growth of bunch grass.

A few small cedar and juniper trees are found in and adjacent to the cañons.

It is fairly well watered by small creeks from the few springs high up on the mountains

There are several settlers within this survey who have made some improvements upon the lands.

All posts used are of red-wood.