Township 27 N., R. 56 E.

General Description.

The land in the portion of this township just subdivided is mostly mountainous and of little value. There is a little good land in Secs. 34-35-36-11-12 and 14. The soil in which is of a 1st rate loam, the soil in the remainder is sandy rocky character, 3rd rate.

There is some scattering juniper and a few aspen and mahogany timber in the Tp. of no value except for wood and posts.

There are no mines or indications of minerals in the Tp.

There are several small streams in the Tp. which furnish a limited amount of water for irrigating the small parcels of cultivatable land and is