

Description.

This is an isolated Township, Surrounded on the East, South and West Sides by Sterile, barren Sandy plains, or high broken rocky mountains, containing lands forever unfit for agricultural purposes in any form.

The above named adjacent Country is also destitute of water and nearly of vegetation.

The lands within the boundaries of this Township that have not been subdivided, are of the same character of the adjacent lands above described,