

Description

The alluvial land in this Township are among the best in the State for agricultural purposes in all its various branches. The Soil being of the very best quality, and not subject to overflow by the river sufficient to injure the growing crops. The Gruckee River has a fall of about 20 feet to the mile in its course through this Township, and nearly all of the land West of the river can be irrigated by leading water from the River in a ditch and several good