

— Bet. Ranges 28 and 29 E, T. 21 N.

|                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| thmadesg | 1, 12, 6 and 7Level sandy plain covered withdeposits from ancient springs.                                                                                                                         |
| umpsThos.        | North bet secs 1 and 8Cor. $16\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ E                                                                                                                                                   |
| andto the        | 40.00 Set a cottonwood portion a mound ofearth with pits and stone markedx as per instructions for $\frac{1}{4}$ sec cor                                                                           |
|                      | 77.00 road N.E. and S.W.                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| aner                 | 80.00 Set a cottonwood portion a mound ofearth with pits and stone markedx as per instructions for Cor ofTownships 21 and 22 N Ranges 28and 29 E.Sandy plain and salt flats, no grass. |
| E.linethe    | From the corner of Townships 21 and22, N. Ranges 28 and 29 E. I runEast bet. Secs 6 and 31Cor $17\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Eroad N.E. E and S.E. W                                              |