

M. D. M.

56

General Description

The land in this Township is level or slightly rolling except in the extreme Eastern portion ^{of an unfit for cultivation} which is mountainous, and the land is covered with sagebrush greasewood and scattering Juniper timber, the soil is good and suitable for raising good crops of grain, a considerable land is now under cultivation and several settlers are now in the Township, and most of the Township being arable or covered with timber should be subdivided.