

General Description

The South Eastern portion of this township consists of broken, stony hills, no water, and unfit for cultivation or grazing.

Through the Northern portion runs Paris Creek, and in the West ^{and} South West flows Elder Creek, both having considerable bottom land adapted to cultivation.

The land is mostly rolling hills covered with a thick growth of bunch grass and is fine grazing. The Northern and Western portions should be subdivided.
