

General Description

The line as now passes over Kings River valley, which is mostly level, covered with Sage Brush and some grass.

The soil is fair, though sandy in some places, Kings River crosses the South Boundary of Sec 33 in Range 33, it possesses some bottom land, and affords sufficient supply of water for irrigating purpose. The line, if extended either East or West, would pass over high precipitious mountains rendering it impossible to measure with correctness.