

Section of Country - by means of irrigation for which purpose there is an abundance of water supplied by the North Fork of Buffalo Creek, and other available streams and large springs in the neighboring hills. The unsubdivided portion consist of extremely rough broken hills unfit for any purpose, covered principally with sage brush, with some scattering Cedar. There is one settler in Section 11 engaged in farming and stock raising.

T. 34. N. R. 18. E.

					11	28	12
							24
					14	27	13
					32	26
20	21	35	22	31	23	25	24
39	38	35		30			24
29	37	28	34	27	30	26	24	25
37	36		33		29		23
32	36	33	33	34	29	35	23	36

4