

401 General Description.

The land in this Township, is mountainous, except in Coleman Valley, a portion of which is situated in extreme Western part of the Township.

The timber and undergrowth consist of Juniper, Sagebrush and bunchgrass, the latter furnishing good grazing for cattle and horses.

Some portions of the Tp. are valuable for agriculture.

The soil is 1st and 2nd rate.