

GENERAL DESCRIPTION.

This Township is composed generally of rolling land though a small part is mountainous.

The soil is generally 2nd rate.

There is much fine Juniper and Spruce timber throughout the Township and this renders it valuable as a lumber region. The fine growth of Barren grass over the entire township renders it eminently desirable for grazing purposes.

The Cherry Creek road runs through this Township.