

General Description

This township so far as embraced in my contract consists of rolling mountains, watered by various springs at the head of Town & Bishop Creeks along which and in the ravines the land is well adapted to agriculture if irrigated. The remainder of the land affords good grazing.

All posts set are of redwood.