

General Description

That portion of this township now surveyed is mountainous & watered by springs.

It affords good grazing.

There is no timber or indication of mineral.

In some instances I was unable to sink corner stones to the prescribed depth without blasting, but set all corners firmly in the ground and as deep as practicable.