

General Description

Most of that portion of this township now surveyed is mountainous, is watered by springs & by Dorsey & Willow creeks, and affords good grazing.

There is no timber in the township but a few aspens & willows are found near Springs and along the creeks.

I observed no indication of mineral

In some instances I was unable to set corners to prescribed depths on account of bedrock but in all cases set the same firmly and as deep as possible