

General Description

All of this township now surveyed is mountainous. The soil is generally stony & poor but the bunch grass affords good grazing. It is watered by Trout Creek. There is no timber in the township.

In some cases it was impracticable to set stones to the entire depth required by the manual but all were set firmly to bedrock & beyond possibility of accidental removal.