

General Description

Practically all of this township now surveyed is mountainous & poorly watered.

The soil is generally a species of decomposed limestone or shale with sand and affords good grazing.

There is a general growth of southern scrub cedar & juniper of no value save for fuel & which is too stunted & bushy to be available for lime or ~~wood~~ bearing trees.