

General Description

The Western portion of this township is mountainous & has in places a scattery growth of scrub cedar & juniper of no commercial value save for fuel & too stunted & bushy to be available for line or witness trees.

The South Fork of the Humboldt flows through Secs. 5 & 6.

The soil is poor & thin on the mountains but the bunchgrass is plentiful & grazing good.