

General Description

Practically all of this township now surveyed is mountainous, is fairly well watered by springs & small streams and is good grazing ground. There is a partial growth of scattering scrub juniper & pinon too stunted & bushy for either fire or bearing trees.

In some instances I could not set stones in the ground to the full depth required in the manual but set all as far in the ground as practicable without bursting & sufficiently deep to be beyond the reach of any save intentional removal.