

General Description

This township contains a large proportion of fertile bottom land & is well watered by the Bruncan river and its affluents

There are settlements & cultivated fields along the bottoms

Some prospecting has been done for gold but so far without remunerative results.

Some excavations were unable to set corners to the full depth required in the Manual without blasting but all stones are firmly set in the ground beyond chance of accidental disturbance