

T43 N. R. 616

General Description

This township is traversed & well watered by different forks of Deer creek in the bottoms of which are numerous patches of very rich soil mostly narrow

There is some cottonwood timber in the bottoms of no marketable value save for posts

No discovery of mineral has been made in the township