

General Description

This township is well watered by the North Fork of Salmon River and its tributaries.

The bottom lands produce large crops of excellent wild hay.

The grazing lands though steep produce bountifully of wild grasses.