

General Description.

This township is in the main very rough and mountainous, except in the N.W. portion. It nearly all drains westerly through Big Creek and its tributaries. There are settlements in the northern portion. It is mineralized but has no producing mines. It is all good grazing land.

William Farney
U.S. Deputy Surveyor.