

General Description.

Sec. 33 contains all of the agricultural land or land suitable for dry farming in this tp. which has not been previously surveyed. To the north and east of sec. 33 there is high, rocky mountains, wholly unfit for cultivation, and because they are of this nature I did not extend the survey beyond the lines of sec. 33.