

Resurvey of the W. bdy.; west of secs. 6, 7 and 18; the lines bet. secs. 18-19, 19-20, 16-21, 16-17, 20-21, 21-28, 27-28, 27-34, 34-35; the E. $\frac{1}{2}$ bet. secs. 20-29, and the N $\frac{1}{2}$ bet. secs. 19-20. T32N, R41E.

250

Chains

it at the same point as follows:
Set an iron post, 3 ft. long, 3 ins. diam. 24 ins. in the ground for cor. of secs. 2, 3, 34 and 35; with brass cap mkd.

T32N
R41E
S34 | S35 ✓
S3 | S2
T31N ✓
1910

dig pits 18x18x12 ins. in each sec. 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ ft. dist.; and raise a mound of earth 4 ft. base, 2 ft. high W. of cor. Land, rolling.

Soil, gravelly loam to rocky; 2nd. and 3rd. rate. The soil is of good quality, derived from the disintegration of lime, granite and eruptive rocks, but too uneven and containing too many stones. Covered with a good growth of sagebrush, little grass, no timber

Dec. 1, 1910

Subdivision in T32N, R41E.

Dec. 5, 1910.

I complete the subdivision of sec. 20 as follows:

From the $\frac{1}{4}$ cor. bet. secs. 19 and 20 I run.

South bet. secs. 19 and 20.

Over rolling land.

2.75 Ravine, course N.E.

24.00 Ridge, bears N.E. and S.W.

35.50 Small ravine, course N.E.

40.00 Set an iron post, 3 ft. long, 2 ins. diam. 24 ins. in the ground for the S.W. cor. of sec. 20; with brass cap mkd.

T32N R41E
S20

1910