

General Description.

This township is rough and mountainous, except a small strip along the East bdy., which is a level alkali desert. The soil, in general, is rocky, 4th rate. Some scattering junipers are found in the interior, and the entire township is covered with low scattering sage brush. This township is very dry, except for a few small streams.

J. D. Archer.

U. S. Transitman.