FIELD NOTES

OF THE SURVEY OF THE

| Retracement and Resurvey of the                 | ne Ruby Valley Gui    | de Meridian              |
|---|-----------------------|--------------------------|
| through T. 8 N., Rs. 55 and 5                   | 6 E., the South, W    | est and North            |
| boundaries and the Subdivisio                   | ns of T. 8 N., R.     | 55 E.                    |
|   |                       |                          |
|   |                       |                          |
|   |                       | ,                        |
|   |                       |                          |
|   |                       |                          |
|   | - N                   |                          |
|   | y = 0                 |                          |
|   |                       | *                        |
|   |                       |                          |
|   |                       |                          |
|   |                       | *                        |
| Of the Mt. Diablo Base                          | and                   | Meridian,                |
| In the State ofNevada.                          |                       |                          |
| EXE   | CUTED BY              |                          |
| Edward R. Bunbury                               |                       |                          |
|   |                       |                          |
|   |                       |                          |
| Transitman In the capacity of U.S. Surveyor, un |                       | 1 March 29, , 1915,      |
| issued by the United States Surve               | yor General to gover  | rn surveys included in   |
| Group No. 37, which were appr                   | roved by the Commissi | oner of the General Land |
| Office, April 16, 1915                          |                       |                          |
| 7   |                       |                          |
|   | *                     |                          |
| Survey commenced                                | October 25,           | , 1915                   |
| Survey completed                                | November 21,          | . 1915                   |