

CHAINS

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

This township is located in Penoyer Valley, about 70 miles northwest of Alamo, Nevada.

The portion of the township resurveyed is rich valley land. The soil is sandy loam with greasewood, shadscale and bunch grass providing winter range for cattle. There is no timber.

The water is supplied by wells throughout the valley.

No minerals were noted during the course of the survey.

There are no settlements in the township.