

DEPENDENT RESURVEY, S. BDY., T. 35 N., R. 38 E.

| CHAINS |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 37.50  | The cor. of Tps. 34 and 35 N., Rs. 37 and 38 E., monumented with an iron post, 2½ ins. diam., set, mkd. and witnessed as described in the field notes of the re-survey of T. 34 N., R. 38 E., executed concurrently under this same group. From this corner a bench mark, which is a standard bronze disk, set in cement and mkd. USC &amp; GS 4100 ft. 1958, bears S. 89° 05' E., 4.20 chs. dist. Land, gently rolling.Soil, sandy clay and rocky.Undergrowth, sagebrush.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|        | DEPENDENT RESURVEY OF A PORTION OF THE W. BDY., T. 35 N., R. 38 E., MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN, NEVADA.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|        | Reestablishment of the Survey Executed byW. Epler, Deputy Surveyor, in 1867.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|        | The cor. of secs. 25, 30, 31 and 36, monumented with a steel pin, ¾ in. diam., set 15 ins. in the ground, at corner of fences, bearing E. and S. This steel pin is locally accepted as the corner and is the best available evidence of the position of the original corner. At the corner point Set an iron post, 28 ins. long, 2½ ins. diam., 24 ins. in the ground, with brass cap mkd. T35NR37E R38ES 25   S 30S 36   S 31 1965 reset the steel pin alongside the iron post and raise a mound of stone, 3 ft. base, 2 ft. high, W. of cor. N. 0° 03' E., bet. secs. 25 and 30. Over nearly level land, through medium undergrowth, along bladed strip. |
| 36.00  | Wash, 10 lks. wide, 2 ft. deep, drains SW.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 40.03  | The ¼ sec. cor. of secs. 25 and 30, monumented with a steel pipe, 1½ in. diam., set 15 ins. in the ground. This steel pipe is locally accepted as the corner and is the best available evidence of the position of the original corner. At the corner point Set an iron post, 28 ins. long, 2½ ins. diam., 24 ins. in the ground, with brass cap mkd.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |