

OFFICIALLY FILED
NEVADA STATE OFFICE
at 10:00 AM on JANUARY 21, 1999

A vertical line with arrowheads at both ends. In the center is a compass rose consisting of two concentric circles. The inner circle is divided into four quadrants by a horizontal and a vertical line, with the top-right quadrant shaded black. The text "True Meridian" is written vertically along the line, to the left of the compass rose.

Chief Cadastral Surveyor, Nevada

T.18S., R.63E., M.D.M.