

This is a detailed cadastral map of a 36-section township in Utah. The map is organized into a 6x6 grid of sections, numbered 1 through 36. Each section is labeled with its number and the total acreage within it. For example, Section 1 is 639.80 acres, and Section 36 is 614.0 acres. The map includes various geographical features, such as 'Alkali Flat' in the upper right and lower right, and 'Alkali' in the lower right. It also shows a network of roads, including 'Main Road' and 'Old Well Road', and a 'Flat' area. The map is bounded by a grid of lines, with section numbers and acreage printed along the edges. The map is titled 'Total number of Acres' at the bottom, with a scale of 1 inch = 40 acres. The map is a reproduction of a historical document, with a yellowish tint and some wear visible.
